

Slipstream Show And Tell Trail

The Slipstream Show And Tell Trail is a free resource. At these live demonstrations you will see how easy it is to colour cloth and make your own textile products. You also have the opportunity to try it for yourself to see just how easy it is. My book, Contemporary Dyecraft / Eietydse Kleurkuns (Metz Press), will be available for you to buy your author-signed copy. You will also be able to buy the DVD that supports the book with more techniques. Ask me your questions about dye and prints in person.

Slipstream Classes (R396 paid in advance)

Classes last 3 hours and we supply all the materials that you will need. Your place in the class is reserved as soon as we receive full payment in advance. Payments are non-refundable. If you cannot make it on the day due to some unforeseen circumstance, you are welcome to attend a later one. Please wear old clothes! We get messy. BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL! If you are booked and paid for in advance, I am able to keep you informed of any scheduling changes. I do not cater to people who arrive on the day. I like to prepare thoroughly for a class and when extra people arrive unexpectedly it disrupts the flow for the other students.

Courses

We run intensive courses for those who are more serious about learning how to make their own fabrics using dye and prints. These courses are designed to upskill people with businesses in the textile industries like fashion and interior designers, school teachers and craft teachers. They are run at venues that have B&B facilities for students who travel from outlying areas.

Craft Break-Away

In 2011 we will be having our first Craft Retreat don in the Cape. Picture this... a week in the fynbos where you spend the mornings dyeing and printing fabrics, and the afternoons enjoying nature in the bush or on the beach...Does it sound like heaven to you? We have chosen these because the fynbos is in its full glory this time of year.

How do I book my place in a Slipstream class?

Request a class schedule via e-mail at info@dyeandprints.co.za

Select the activity you want, e-mail us your request and wait for an invoice/reply.

Do an eft or direct cash deposit at bank and send us proof of payment.

We will confirm your place in the class.

Places are limited so book early to avoid disappointment.

Arrive on time at the class wearing old clothes and ENJOY!

I will be teaching at Hobby-X 4-6 March 2011 with In2Crafts. Each day, I will present one class on Printing With Found Objects, one class of Lino Block Making and one class where we will dye a heart into cloth. Look out on www.in2crafts.co.za for scheduling and bookings closer to the event.

Soul Sisters is a fabulous craft club for women where you can spend the day relaxing with the girls and enjoying your favourite crafts, taught by some of the best teachers in the industry.
